DEFINITION OF DEPENDENT STUDENT: A full-time dependent student is a person who meets all the following conditions: He/She is at least 19 years of age, unmarried, receives at least half of his/her support from the employee or member, and is enrolled full-time in an accredited secondary or preparatory school or college.

If a covered dependent student is required because of illness or injury to take a medically necessary leave of absence from school, the dependent is eligible for continued health insurance coverage for the lesser of:

1. One (1) year after the first day of the leave of absence or last date of attendance in school, whichever is later; or 2. the date that coverage would otherwise terminate for the dependent student under the terms of the policy.

The treating physician must certify to HIP that the dependent student is suffering from a serious illness or injury and that the leave of absence is medically necessary. During the continuation period, the dependent student will be entitled to the same benefits as if the dependent student was enrolled in school and not on the medically necessary leave of absence.

I certify that my dependent student listed above meets all of the following requirements for eligibility as a dependent student.
